

AIM FOR SUCCESS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Each year, a one-time monetary award is granted to a graduating Osawatomie High School senior on behalf of the AIM for Success scholarship fund. AIM is an acronym that stands for Aptitude Integrity and Motivation. The AIM scholarship committee members believe that these three characteristics are critical pillars for individual success and therefore, for purposes of choosing an award recipient, carry substantial weight. Consideration is also given for individual circumstantial reasons, although not to the extent of the aforementioned AIM pillars.

The following items must be completed (if applicable) before the committee will consider an applicant for the award. Note that the application layout below is simply a guide for an applicant to provide the required information. Please feel free to convey the required information in a format of your choice if so desired.
